

CITY OF COMMERCE AGENDA REPORT

TO: Honorable City Council Item No. _____
FROM: City Administrator
SUBJECT: APPROVAL OF ADDITIONAL 2017 CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS
RENEWALS
MEETING DATE: February 7, 2017

RECOMMENDATION:

Approve additional Civic Organizations for 2017 as recommended by the Parks & Recreation Commission on February 2, 2017.

RELATIONSHIP TO STRATEGIC GOALS:

This agenda item relates to 2016 Strategic Plan, Community Quality of Life and Guiding Principle 2: Continue to enhance partnerships and connections with neighborhoods throughout the city through focused outreach efforts, strategic utilization of various communication methods, including technology, and meaningful personal interaction with the community.

ANALYSIS/BACKGROUND:

The City of Commerce confers civic organization status to organizations that meet the established criteria. Officially recognized Civic Organizations are entitled to privileges bestowed upon them by the City, to assist the organizations in achieving their goals and objectives and service to Commerce residents.

8 Civic Organizations were approved at the January 17, 2017 Council Meeting. 3 additional organizations submitted for approval after the deadline and have been recommended for renewal by the Parks and Recreation Commission.

Civic Organizations

- Auld Lang Syne Club
- Commerce Aquatics Booster Club
- Girl Scout Troop of America
- Guadalupanas Society

FISCAL IMPACT:

This activity can be carried out without additional impact to the current operating budget.
