

CITY OF COMMERCE AGENDA REPORT

TO: Honorable City Council

FROM: Interim City Administrator

SUBJECT: Appointment to Special Needs Commission

MEETING DATE: September 19, 2017

RECOMMENDATION:

Make the appropriate appointments.

ANALYSIS:

On August 15, 2017 City Council approved creation of Special Needs Commission to act in an advisory capacity to the City Council regarding concerns and/or issues affecting people with special needs. The Commission would act on its own initiative to make recommendations to the City Council on programs and services designed to help people with special needs.

The Commission consists of five members to be selected/appointed collectively by the entire Council. Each Commissioner would have to possess a degree in special education, have work experience in a relevant field, or have significant hands-on experience with aiding those with special needs.

Following individuals submitted applications for Special Needs Commission:

Ana Lozano

Carol Miles

Mariam Madrigal

Erica Bohorquez

Ramona Villa

Randy Munoz

Lindsey Wyllie - Gruen

Susana Cisneros

FISCAL IMPACT:

This activity can be carried out without additional impact on the current operating budget.

Respectfully Submitted by: Fernando Mendoza, Interim City Administrator
