

The City Council of the City of Commerce

Commends

Jayda Silva

for your heroic actions in helping a referee suffering from a heart attack at the September 16 Commerce Swim Meet. Your quick thinking and sound judgment prevented what could have been a tragic event. The City is proud of the way you handled yourself in the face of a crisis and of your willingness to help out. Thank you for your courageous action.

Presented this 21st day of November 2017
