COLLEGE FAIR RECAP

Ms. Bautista reported on this item:

The Commission received information regarding how the Commerce Fair event that was held at Rosewood Park. Library staff met to discuss what worked, what didn't, and what can be done again for next year. Schools that attended the fair had positive comments and enjoyed the water misters and igloo water for the public. The Commission received a handout with stats of the schools that attended, organizations that donated, and the total attendance of the college fair, which came out to 756 participants.

A discussion followed regarding how to improve workshops at the fair, how to ensure facilitators for each workshop, and how to better promote the College fair to other high schools for next year.
